On page 25, the following inscriptions are listed:

ALLEN BRUCE McINTOSH Son of J K & D A McIntosh
Apr 9 1897 - Jly 24 1897

DORA A McINTOSH
Wife of Jos McIntosh
May 11 1859 - Apr 24 1896

These dates are correctly copied; however, Allen Bruce, the child's dates are incorrect. According to DADEVILLE HERALD mother and child died in the same year.

DADEVILLE HERALD, Apr 30, 1896: "Death has again visited our town and has carried off two of her lovely women. On Saturday last the spirit of Mrs. Jos McIntosh took its flight. She was a noble Christian woman ... the other was Miss Viena Williams ... "

DADEVILLE HERALD, May 14, 1896: Memorial tribute by Mary McIntosh to Mrs. Jos McIntosh and a poem.

DADEVILLE HERALD, July 30, 1896: "The angel of death visited the home of Bro Jos McIntosh on last Tuesday about 7 o'clock PM, taking his little child about 3-1/2 months of age. The little infant had been a sufferer since the death of its mother. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. A. J. Cumbee on Wednesday evening at 4:30 o'clock."

Extended comments were not copied because they did not contribute any further proof being sought on the death dates.

In the check on McIntosh, a new marker was found that would fit on page 29, between Infant Son McINTOSH (Col. 1, 3rd from bottom) and WILLIAM THOMAS JINKS. It is:

JOHN WILLIAM McINTOSH

In Memory of

MARJORIE ANDREWS

1903 - 1982

The effort evidenced by this Volume is dedicated to the memory of my long-time friend whose radiance on this earth reflected a life of service that now glows in the heavenly realm. Death took from our counsel the wisdom, enthusiasm and charm of this friend. Marjorie was a charter member of this Society and suggested to me the need for collecting and recording epitaphs in neglected cemeteries.

Marjorie was interested in the LaFayette Cemetery and had worked with Mrs. Maudie Riley in recording some of the information not otherwise available because of severe vandalism inflicted on the memorials in recent months.

-o-

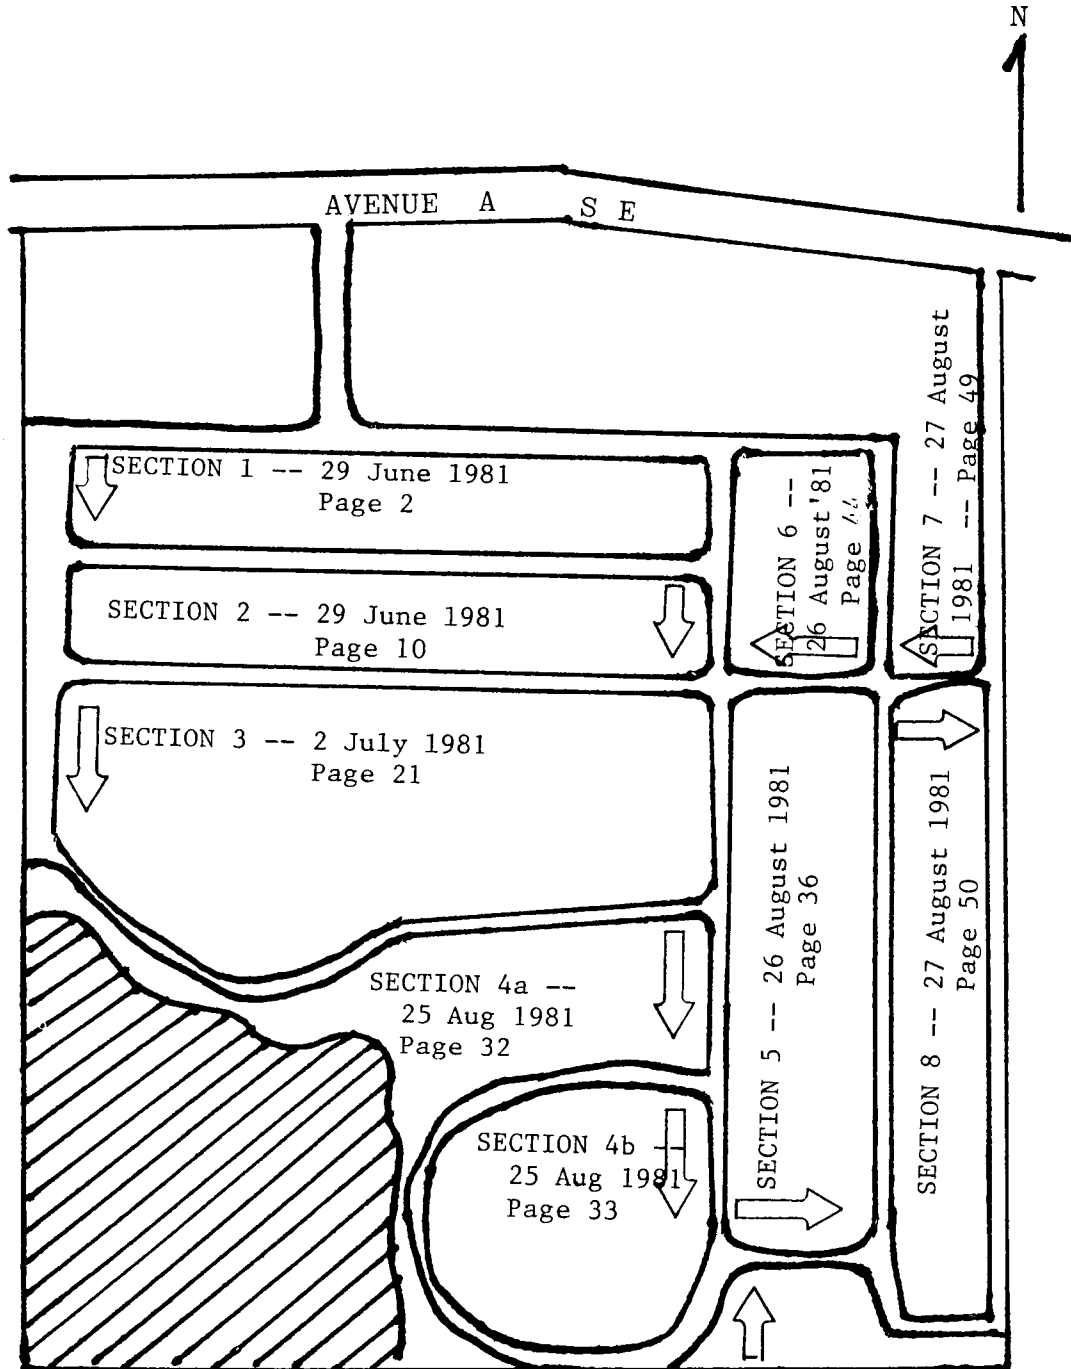

Dates shown at the beginning of each section of the cemetery and shown on the map are the first-visit dates. Other visits were made and new or corrected information added to the collection. The final visit was made December 13, 1982.

After the death of Marjorie Andrews, Miss Nell Orr, another faithful member of the Society in LaFayette, came to aid our efforts and spent many hours visiting the cemetery to identify over-looked information and to correct errors. She also consulted the literature and public records related to individuals to assure the accuracy of the collection.

EPITAPHS IN THE LAFAYETTE CEMETERY

Location: The cemetery is located on Avenue A., SE, in the eastern part of the town. The survey map on page 1 will indicate the sections and the dates they were originally surveyed. It will serve as a useful index in locating graves.

The procedure in collecting the information was to make a voice recording of epitaphs in each section. A first-draft, typed manuscript was produced for those who assisted. Marjorie Andrews, Nell Orr and several others helped. Comparisons were made with older records developed by Marjorie and Maude Riley. In addition, knowledgeable citizens and historical records were consulted.

On the entrance gate post is a bronze plaque which indicates some of the pride in this place of memorials:

In appreciation of the noble work of Mrs. Janie Collins Scarborough and Mrs. Mamie Griffin Siler who through untiring and unselfish effort have transformed Westview Cemetery, beloved city of our dead, into a place of beauty, is this tablet lovingly inscribed by their friends. Their memory will long be in our hearts. April 1936
