ANTIOCH BAPTIST CHURCH
Chambers County, Alabama

The family of Francis and Elizabeth Calloway, moving in a caravan of horses, mules, wagons and possessions from Franklin County, Georgia, arrived at their destination in the Wilderness in January 1835. They came to the place of their new home five miles west of the Chambers County seat town of LaFayette.

And in that place Elder Calloway brought together that spring fifteen persons to establish the Antioch Baptist Church on land which he gave. They entered into a covenant of twelve "sublime and important doctrines." They agreed ... "Further ... to assist the poor amongst us and aid in the support of the gospel as far as the scriptures require and submit ourselves to them that have the rule over us as far as we think the gospel directs, holding ourselves not separable only by consent or unscripturally detained, and in the fear of God, we have hereunto set our hands this the 15th day of May A. D., 1835."

Signed by: Males--Francis Calloway, James Stroud, Jesse Russell, James Germany, Marcus H. Hoskins and James (a colored servant). Females--Elizabeth Calloway, Jane Stroud, Elizabeth Russell, Nancy Ogle, Katherine Towles, Elizabeth Cooper, Elvira Germany, Lydia Clay and Elender Nobles.

Work was begun on the first meeting house after a committee, named at the June 1835 meeting to subscribe funds, reported in July: "We have received subscriptions to the amount of $195.00 and twenty days of work." At the December meeting a committee was named to receive the property offered by Francis and Elizabeth Calloway.

The meeting house was built of logs on land described in a second deed on April 3, 1849 as "being seven acres ... lying and being in the county and state aforesaid in the Northeast quarter of Section 6, Township 21, Range 26."

THE FREDONIA UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

At

FREDONIA

The sesquicentennial of the Church was celebrated May 15, 1983. Ezra Moore and his wife, Lois, were chairpersons for the celebration program. Information presented here has been taken from the published booklet used on this occasion. The Genealogical Society of East Alabama expresses grateful appreciation to the Moores and the Methodist Church at Fredonia.¹

The Founders

It was in the 1820's that the first settlers came into Chambers County and the area around Fredonia. For it was then that the road was built. Not really a road, it was more of a wagon trail, but they called it Chapman Road. It crossed Chambers County to link the Chattahoochee with the Tallapoosa and Coosa Rivers. The Chapman Road passed near present day Fredonia.

During those early days Alexander McDonald came with his wife, Unity. They came from beyond the Chattahoochee, from Harris County in Georgia, and with them came two of their daughters and sons-in-law. These were John and Sarah Hurst and Asa and Margaret Cox. The party selected a spot some two or three miles off the road and pitched tents when they came into the untouched wilderness. Today we know that spot as Fredonia.

The younger men soon established a trading post and records available today give testimony to their remarkable business ability. But their's was a higher goal. Mr. Hurst, himself a local preacher and true to his strong Wesleyan convictions, set about to establish a place to worship. A society was formed and met in Hurst's Store. In those days this name designated both the place of business and the village. The precise origin of the name, Fredonia, is lost somewhere in the mists of time.

Settlers continued to trickle into the area but it was not until the Treaty of 1832 with the Creek Indians that settlement became widespread. It was with this surge of settlers that Evan Richards came. And though he settled in early day LaFayette and was a driving force in early county affairs, Mr. Richards is the person most responsible for forming a church at Fredonia.

Evan Richards, himself a licensed preacher and a man of deep Methodist convictions, visited the society by then composed of thirteen members. He was struck by the fervor of those early settlers and their deep spiritual need. In December 1833, Mr. Richards traveled to Montgomery where he addressed the annual conference and described the need. He made an eloquent plea that a preacher be appointed to this newly opened territory. As a result the Chattahoochee Mission was formed and two young missionaries were assigned.

Into an area comprising all of present day Chambers, Randolph, Tallapoosa, Coosa, Macon, Lee and most of Barbour Counties, the two men came. Their names, Sidney Squires and Hugh M. Finley until this day remain deeply etched in Chambers County Methodism. Mr. Finley was in his second year of trial as a member of the conference but died during that year while serving the newly created mission. His was the first grave in the cemetery out back of the Fredonia Church but today its location is known only unto God. At the end of that year, Mr. Squires transferred to the Mississippi Conference and went on to a long and productive ministry. He finally located in Arkansas.

During that first year, in addition to Fredonia, churches were established at LaFayette, Standing Rock, Cusseta and Oak Bowery. There were probably others but Fredonia was first and will forever have the distinction of being the oldest church in Chambers County. By 1838 a large and active campground had been established and camp meetings were annual affairs in Fredonia.

First Members

Precise knowledge of charter members is not known but certainly they were among the first members listed on an early church roll. These were: Rev. and Mrs. John A. Hurst, Dr. and Mrs. Isham Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. George Smartt, Rev. Reuben Oslin, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton McDonald, William Angus McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Trammell, Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Meriwether Walker, Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. Dulcina Locke, Mr. and Mrs. William Herndon and Mrs. Henrietta Smith Morris.

The Centennial
Fifty Years Ago

Methodism's centennial in Chambers was observed in Fredonia on July 13 1933. Reverend W. M. Treadaway was pastor. On the program that day were: Reverend H. M. Hurst, P. A. Hurst, C. E. Fuller, Mrs. E. M. Barber, Reverend A. C. Blackburn, Professor L. M. Stevenson, Mrs. F. M. Hornsby, Miss Lemerle Penn, Dr. F. K. Gamble, Hon. J. Thomas Heflin, Reverend R. I. Walston and Mr. Albert Penn. Dr. H. M. Andrews preached the centennial sermon.

The Buildings

The first church in Fredonia was of split logs and about twenty feet square. It was built by John Hurst and Asa Cox and probably had a dirt floor with hand hewn benches serving as pews.

The congregation grew and the log building was quickly out-grown. In 1834 the congregation recognized its need for a larger building. In that year an impressive white clapboard building was erected on the grounds of the original log building. It was an unusually attractive building for its time and served the community well until destroyed by fire in 1954. A unique feature of the building was a dividing partition down the center aisle, men sat on one side, women on the other. Each side had its own entrance door from the front. There was a large slave balcony with an entrance from the outside. During those early days services were held every Sunday afternoon for the slaves.

In 1922, six ladies, all members of the Women's Missionary Society, took the initiative in the project of remodeling the church. At that time the outside entrance to the balcony was eliminated. The ladies were: Mrs. John Stodghill, Miss Hattie Mae Johnson, Mrs. W. O. Heath, Mrs. Stinson Adams, Mrs. J. F.

Cumbee and Mrs. Alleen Cumbee. Under their leadership and with E. A. Zobel as contractor, the church was extensively renovated.

When the church burned the small congregation immediately set about to rebuild their sanctuary on the exact spot as the one before. The building committee was: J. H. Camp, chairman, Miss Mamie Andrews, Ezra Moore, Harold Holley, Richard Sullivan and the Reverend J. H. Harris. Within eighteen months the new brick structure we see today was completed and paid for. A major enlargement just completed for this occasion has added the beautiful fellowship hall that stands just behind the sanctuary.

Epitaphs in the Cemetery
At
The Methodist Church of Fredonia

Contributions to this collection were made by Robert C. Horn of Auburn, Lodie Mae McClendon of LaFayette and Bradford Blair, Jr. of Five Points. An earlier survey made in 1954 by Nella Jean Chambers and her father, Jefferson A. Chambers, was carefully compared. Mr. Horn's first visit was made October 16, 1983 and he made the final visit on November 8, 1984.

The cemetery and church are located on Chambers County Road 81 about four miles southeast of Five Points. The land description is NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 13; Township 23 N - Range 27 E.

From a starting point in the northwest corner of the cemetery, the survey proceeded southward to the road, then turned toward the north, and in this manner epitaphs were read in typical family-lot lanes. Tape recordings were made on each visit. Some information presented is not from the grave stones and it will be identified with bracket enclosures, eg., [Married Jly 28 1864 - Chambers County Marriage Records].

Of course there were some very old graves which could not be read accurately. It was intended to be that way by at least one person, John A. Hurst, who stated in his will: "First I desire at my decease that all my debts shall be paid, that I be interred in a plain manner and suffered to my grave without any monument or slab. I have at this time strong confidence in My Redeemer that I shall arise amongst the first in the last day." [Book 3, page 83 - Chambers County Wills].

NEW HOPE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

At

FREDONIA

The New Hope Baptist Church was organized in 1833. Prior to this time only a few hardy pioneers had ventured into the land occupied by the Creek Indians. In the Spring of 1832 settlers began moving into Chambers County. This movement continued for several succeeding years. With this movement from Georgia came John R. Humphries, an ordained Baptist Minister. Humphries was the first Baptist Minister to reside in Chambers County.

No records have been found establishing which church is the oldest, but Fredonia was called Hurst Store until about 1835, and was the first settlement in Chambers County. In 1832 a Christian Minister, John Hurst, was living at Hurst Store. John R. Humphries, a Baptist Minister also lived at Hurst Store.

In 1833, a Methodist Minister, Evan G. Richards moved to Chambers County to Chambersville, what is now LaFayette.

In 1890, Mr. Evan G. Richards, author of "Reminiscences of Early Days in Chambers County," stated he held the first Methodist services at Hurst Store in the fall of 1833. County records show New Hope as having a building in February of 1833 which leads us to believe New Hope the first organized church in Chambers County.

In November of 1835, a group of delegates from churches in Alabama and West Georgia met to form a Baptist Association at New Hope. A constitution and Article of Faith were agreed upon at this meeting. These were to be submitted to the churches and upon ratification, delegates were invited to meet at LaFayette Baptist Church on September 28, 1836. At the time of the organization of the Association, New Hope was the largest church in Chambers County, having 113 members. New Hope is a charter member of the Association and has remained a strong supporter of the Missionary Baptist belief.

New Hope Church was host for the East Liberty Association in 1835, 1848, 1859, 1874, 1889, 1906 and in 1952.

New Hope continued to progress until the Spring of 1837. But ironically, the first split in the Association occurred at New Hope when two anti-missionary ministers, Frederick Swint and Edmond Jackson, became members of the church. As a result of this split the membership of New Hope dropped to 52 in 1837. Frederick Swint with some members of New Hope started Mt. Pisgah Primitive Baptist Reference: Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Blair, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Sesquicentennial Committee, appointed March 27, 1983, by the New Hope Church to write this history.

Church. Edmond Jackson and some other members of New Hope began Fellowship Primitive Baptist Church.

In 1841, New Hope began a recovery from the effects of the split when there were 39 baptized. This brought the membership total to 87. By 1848, New Hope had grown to 157 members and remained one of the largest churches in Chambers County until around 1900. While there were no records showing when Sunday School was started at New Hope, our findings indicate it was started in the 1840's.

In 1849, due to the traveling distance between New Hope and Long Cane, Troup County, Georgia some members from New Hope and Long Cane organized Wehadkee Baptist Church in Troup County, Georgia.

The present church property was purchased from Wiley W. Walker on October 23, 1856. The deacons at this time were David S. Moon, Garrett P. Crowder, William A. Johnson, LeRoy Brown, and Richard S. Askew. On April 14, 1860, the back lot was purchased from Edwin Satterwhite. The deacons were Garrett P. Crowder, William A. Johnson and Jesse Mosely. The church built on the present site was one of the oldest church structures in Chambers County at the time it burned.

In 1899, due to traveling distance between LaFayette and Fredonia, New Hope members that were living around Denson began the Denson Baptist Church.

In 1932 Baptist Young People's Union (now Church Training) was organized at New Hope and continued until 1942 and again became active in 1953.

From 1833 until 1945 services were held once a month. From 1946 until 1955 services were held bi-weekly. Beginning in 1955 services have been conducted each Sunday.

In May 1977, the Church was incorporated and became known as New Hope Baptist Church of Fredonia, Incorporated.

We have been unable to find any records of how New Hope derived its name. We did find in Georgia several New Hope and Fredonia Baptist churches in the late 1700's. Since most of the settlers came from Georgia in early 1800's the name probably came with them.

Research Credits

The Sesquicentennial Committee, appointed by the Church, produced a program pamphlet, "New Hope Missionary Baptist Church -- 1883-1983." The foreword of this publication is reproduced here:

Foreword

On March 27, 1983, a committee was appointed by New Hope Baptist Church to write a history of the first 150 years. Those appointed were Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Blair, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor.

The research material used for compiling this history came from Dr. W. C. Bledsoe's book, "The History of The Liberty (East) Baptist Association of Alabama," The minutes of East Liberty Association from 1836 to 1982, Church Minutes of 1835 from County Line Baptist Church, Sanford University Library, old newspapers, South Western Baptist Paper. The Alabama Baptist from 1843 to 1900. The first History of Alabama Baptists of 1840. Chambers County records, New Hope Church Minutes, History of Mt. Pisgah Church History of Troup County, Georgia, History of East Liberty Baptist Association by Rev. B. B. McGinty.

We are indebted to Mrs. Charles Crump, Chambers County Historian, Mrs. Wells and Ms. Shirley Hutchens of Sanford University Library and Mrs. B. B. McGinty, Dr. John Burrows, President of the Alabama Baptist Historical Society.

Variations in spellings may occur and some names may appear on the church roll more than once. The names are as they were written in the Minutes.

Church Buildings

The first church was a log building built in 1833, supposedly with slave labor. It is believed to have been located north of Fredonia at the Primitive Cemetery on Stroud Road.

In 1837 when the split occurred the Missionaries built another building on Vernon (Oakland) Road across from Baptist Cemetery and remained there 'till 1856.

The building built in 1856 was on the lot where the present church now stands. It was unique in many ways. It had a slave balcony, a baptistry, two (carbide) gas chandeliers, and two pot-bellied stoves for heat. The church bell was approximately five feet in diameter. It could be heard from 3 to 5 miles from the church. The original building was constructed out of original heart pine lumber.

It had the largest seating capacity of any Baptist church in Chambers County and remained one of the largest until the early nineteen hundreds. This building was destroyed by fire in 1953.

The present church building was built in 1953-54 by volunteer labor of the community. In September 1954, the building was completed and appraised for $20,000 with only $1,480 indebtedness.

MILLTOWN BAPTIST CHURCH¹
Chambers County, Alabama

This church has had three names: Gragg's Mill, Shiloh, and Milltown. The settlement of Chambers began in earnest in 1833 and continued until all the land had been taken up. For years the inflow and the outflow of people continued. Some time in the early settlement period a man by the name of William Graggs settled at a place on the Chickasanoxee Creek where he built a dam and a grist mill, which was operated for many years.

Sometime before September, 1839, a Baptist church was organized, and it was given the name of Gragg's Mill Baptist Church. There are no records available on the early years of this church. The information we have has been found in the associational records and some other reference material. We are prone to believe that the church was organized under the leadership of Mr. Graggs, because he attended most of the sessions of the Association for the next 24 years and several times was on the program of the Association.

This church made application for membership in the Association at the annual meeting September 21, 1839, under the name of Shiloh. The clerk records with the application that this church was formerly known as Gragg's Mill Church. The church used the name Shiloh until 1860, when it voted to change the name to The Milltown Baptist Church. Five years later, in 1865, Milltown Church established an arm (or mission) four miles west, and furnished a preacher for it until 1868, when it was organized into a church. This new church then adopted the name "Shiloh," formerly used by the mother church.

No information is available as to the size of the Milltown Church when it joined the Association in 1839; however, in 1840 it gave the membership as 28. In 1841 the record shows 22 members.

During the year 1842 the church enjoyed a fine revival with 49 received for baptism and 9 by letter; these, less 4 dismissions, made the membership 76. Like most of the other churches in those early years they suffered a large turnover in membership. People moved in to live one or more years and then moved on to some other territory. In 1848 they lost 25 by letter. In 1851 they had another good year, receiving 44 by baptism and 7 by letter, membership reported as being 127.

For many years Milltown was a center of education in Chambers County. In 1851 a learned educator and preacher by the name of L. Towers came to Milltown from Georgia to become the pastor of the Milltown Church. In 1853 he took charge of the Milltown Male and Female Academy. He had come to Alabama in an endeavor to get away from a heavy program of work which was taxing his body. He found but little rest here. Being a graduate in Christian theology, he was much interested in aiding young preachers to get an education. R. A. J. Cumbee was one of his students.

The membership of Milltown has never been large. It reached 202 in 1903, but the remainder of the time it has been under 200 and in the last few years has been only slightly above one hundred. But it has been consistent in its program of work.

During the annual session of the Association October 13, 1915 at Milltown, business was dispensed with while Dr. W. D. Gaines, M. D., and W. E. Nichols, both of LaFayette, presented to the Milltown Church an elegant communion service as a memorial to Mrs. Lulu DeV Vaughn, a devout Christian woman who had blessed this community in the past.

The associational clerks did not begin to list pastors each year until 1876. Because of this it is impossible to list the pastors for each church, unless we were able to get the records of the church. We do know that Elder Asa C. A. Simmons served the church in 1848; Elder L. Towers from 1852 to 1855; D. M. McCoy, called 1861; F. H. Moss, 1873; J. P. Shaffer, 1870. The following served in order, Geo. E. Brewer, A. S. Smith, J. P. Hunter, C. J. Burden,, A. S. Brannon, W. J. D. Upshaw, C. J. Bentley, C. A. Strickland, A. E. Silvey, C. M. Cloud, W. J. Layton, B. B. Nelson, J. L. Stough, F. R. Ingram, C. B. Martin, J. M. Cook, J. A. Gullledge, R. E. Owen, T. V. Shoemaker, Robert Lankford, W. W. Owen, H. G. Dewberry, W. Prichard, Vernon Brown, A. Houghton, J. R. DeLoach, Tom Singleton, Thos. Coulliette, Jas. Nolen.

MILLTOWN METHODIST CHURCH

by

Lemma and Verna Tatum

This church was established here in 1902. It was formerly at Penton, three and one-half miles south of Milltown. The church at Penton was divided with part of the membership going to Chapel Hill and establishing a church there. Other members went to Milltown and established a new church there. The building is located on the original site.

Milltown Methodist Church is in the North Alabama Conference. Its first pastor was Rev. Hall. The pastor in 1984 is Rev. James Duke. While the present church has a small active membership it has had a much larger membership.

Editor's Note: No written history was made available for inclusion in this work.

MILLTOWN CEMETERY

Survey was made by Robert C. Horn, Auburn, AL 36830 on the 30th day of November 1983.

Location of the Cemetery: It is located 13 miles NW of the County Seat Town of LaFayette on Alabama Highway 77. The land description is the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 19; Township 24 N - Range 26 E. The extreme western part is in the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 24 in Township 24 N - Range 25 E.

The main part of the cemetery has been reworked and was in excellent state of care at the time of the survey. Metal markers approximately 5 x 8 inches designate memorials to unknown persons. They are placed in parenthesis in the order of the survey route. Recordings began in the NW corner and progressed to the SW corner, turning northward and repeating with lanes covered equal to that of usual family plot.

A HISTORY OF ROCK SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH
Chambers County, Alabama

By

Alfred T. "Fred" Davis¹

"For none of us liveth to himself and no one man dieth to himself."

This verse from Romans 14:7 was the text of the sermon preached by Rev. Francis Calloway on April 24, 1839 to a little group of worshippers gathered at a home about two miles north of what is now Rock Springs Baptist Church.

There were two ordained ministers present, Francis Calloway and Elder William Lacey. After the sermon, Brothers Lacey and Calloway formed a presbytery to organize a church. Brother Britton Stamps acted as clerk of this first meeting.

There were 12 charter members: Richard B. Head, Andrew Patterson, Sara Youngblood, James Neighbors, Ruth Lindsey, Elizabeth Head, Abigail Lindsey, Abner Webb, Martha McClure, Sara Lindsey, Clarry Lindsey and Sara Buckalew. William Lacey and his wife, Sally Lacey, united by letter after the church was organized. In May, 1839, one month later, William Lacey was called to be the first pastor. This church was first given the name of Mount Paran.

On July 24, 1841, the name was changed to Rock Springs and the location of the church was moved one-half mile southeast of the original site. The name was chosen because of a spring flowing from a rock and the water made an ideal setting for a baptismal pool. It was surrounded by a natural amphitheatre of rock where the people could sit and witness the ordinance of baptism.

The building at this site served as a place of worship until the year 1850, when a building was erected on the present site, about five miles northwest of LaFayette, Alabama in Chambers County. The site of the first building is known as Old Rock Springs.

Seven years later, on January 17, 1857, Henry M. Ford and wife Sara Ann, sold to the Rock Springs Church, 16 acres of land for the sum of $52, which land still provides for the ever enlarging cemetery. Deacons in the Rock Springs Church when this purchase was made were James Anderson, William Davis, Abner Webb, Samuel Newman and Phillip Milford.

¹Tap Roots, Vol. 1, No. 3, pp 4-7. Mr. Davis wrote this paper October 1957. He deceased December 10, 1969 and is buried in the cemetery surrounding the Church he loved.

Time continued to bring more changes and increasing progress. In 1880, Rock Springs Church, now 41 years old, heard a Building Committee present plans for a new church. These were carefully detailed designs and specifications and they were accepted. The new church was finished and occupied in 1881. Mr. Lawrence McRae had charge of the erection of the building and he carried out his responsibilities scrupulously. Costs were $1326.86. This building is used by the church today.

The split between the missionary and the anti-missionary Baptists occurred December 26, 1840. After long consideration of the matter of foot washing and fasting, the church at Rock Springs in 1843 agreed "to attend to it twice every year immediately after the communion." This action of the church was later revoked.

On August 5, 1891, G. W. Newman gave about one-fourth of an acre, "all land inside the enclosure of the graveyard to relatives and friends of the dead who are buried at 'Old Rock Springs' to be kept and used for a public graveyard forever hereafter." Mr. Newman specified that the land was always to be used as a public cemetery.

With the building of a new church in 1850, another cemetery was begun in the church yard. At the present time this cemetery is cared for by a committee elected by the church and financed by donations from interested persons and relatives of those buried there.

An interesting note from the minutes of 1883 is a recommendation of the deacons that each member give something to the support of the pastor and that each member pay five cents a month for church expenses.

Included in the Decorum was a rule that "no male member shall be allowed to leave the house in time of conference unless by permission of the moderator." And also included was "it shall be the duty of each member present at the communion to take their seats in order, whether they partake of the elements or not. But if they refuse twice in succession they shall make the cause known to the deacons privately and on failing, the deacons shall report them to the church."

A custom now discontinued was inviting visiting brethren and sisters to seats with them at the regular Saturday conferences. Sending a committee to visit each male member if he had been absent twice from regular conference without having given explanation is no longer practiced. Another custom no longer continued is roll call at each monthly conference.

There still lives an old report that Brother Murdock McRae for 18 years did not miss a Saturday meeting and confer-continues his faithful service. [Mr. Moore deceased March 14, 1962 and is buried in the church cemetery where he worshipped and served]

Rock Springs was one of the first churches to have a Sunday School. Sunday School work was begun in the forties, but since no records were kept, the exact date is not known. The following have served as Sunday School Superintendents since 1885: G. W. Newman, Dr. Stodgil, Mr. Stroud, O. G. Moore, Webster McRae, Fred Davis, R. L. Stewart, Azro Huckaby, Miss Mattie Lou Cato, Eldridge Leverett and Nathan Leverett.

In 1915, the BYPU was organized and this department of the Church is active today with the name of Baptist Training Union.

Rock Springs is one of the churches possessing her old church records and from them we are able to give a complete list of her pastors:¹

The Church has sent many young people into the world who were to help carry on the work of the Lord. The Church has ordained three men in its history: Dr. Stodgill, Will Davis and Charles P. Sisson. Elder Sisson preached his first sermon in the Rock Springs Church and after his ordination became a very effective minister.

When Mrs. Julia Lamb departed this life at the age of 97, she had been a member of Rock Springs Baptist Church for 81 ence. There came a day when he was absent. One of the brethren in the church knowing something was wrong, hurried to Brother McRae's home and found him with a broken arm.

Reflecting the history of the times is the reception of slaves into membership. They are designated by their first names and as being the property of the members who owned them. They were also subject to discipline. In the minutes of 1857 is this entry: "Resolved, that it is the sense of this church that it is the duty of members to bring up their families both bond and free to our regular church meetings both Saturday and the Sabbath but we regard it as a matter of which should be left to the conscience of each individual member."

Records include numerous cases of offenses for which members were disciplined and were excluded if satisfactory acknowledgements were not made to the church. The following list is representative: selling spirituous liquors, dancing, or allowing it to be carried on at ones residence; telling lies; fighting; drawing ones coat to fight; and getting mad and wanting to fight; keeping a disorderly house (where fiddling, dancing and gambling were carried on); running horse races and betting on them; drinking too much spirituous liquors; profane language; unchristian conduct; fornication, adultery and bastardy; card playing; slandering; obtaining property under false pretenses; abusing his wife; quitting his wife or husband; selling or proposing to sell property that did not belong to him; denying the faith; forging notes; breaking the Sabbath; being unsound in the faith; moving away, leaving his church subscription not paid for, and other matters unsettled; not believing in future rewards and punishments.

The Church finding one brother "dissembling and refractory, thought it most for the glory of God and the good of His cause to exclude him, therefore withdrew fellowship from him." Other practices not tolerated by the Church were resorting to dram shops and the purchase of lottery tickets. Time after time in the regular conference a committee was appointed to investigate some rumor about a member, to see an offending one and "cite him to the church conference, or labor with him."

The Church joined the East Liberty Association in 1841. The Association has held its session with Rock Springs Church eight times. One of these was the 100th anniversary of the Church in 1939. Other years were 1860, 1868, 1888, 1904, 1918, 1929, and 1948.

Seven clerks have served this church. The first clerk was Abner Webb and following him were John J. Hussey, William Davis, J. C. Webb, W. J. Johnson, Webster McRae and the incumbent, O. G. Moore, who with almost 30 years of service to his eternal credit, years. When Mrs. Laurie McKee was 88 years old, she had been a member for 71 years. Mrs. McKee recalls the large crowds that used to fill the building and how much the people enjoyed the monthly service. Throughout the years the highest tide was anticipated during the summer "big meeting" when the church services were protracted and held twice a day for a week or more. This was the climax of the season, a time of fellowship and hospitality, as well as being spiritually refreshing. During this week, the approach of evening found people from all directions winding their way to the church to gather there at early candlelight.

By 1948, during the pastorate of C. M. Christmas, the Church added 10 Sunday School rooms and a large recreation room at the rear of the church. Also at that time, the Church remodeled a school building across the road to be used for a parsonage. Total cost of this work was about $10,000. The Church at this time called a minister for full time service and began having church services every Sunday. Prior to this time, the church service was held on the third Sunday of each month, although Sunday School was held every Sunday.

1955 saw more changes and additional progress. The sanctuary was remodeled and hardwood floors, pulpit stand and choir were added. New pews were installed and new windows put in. The entire building was painted and over $5000 was spent on the church building.

In 1957, a vestibule with two Sunday School rooms were built at the front of the building at a cost of about $2000. Membership was 265 and Rev. Maynard McGinty was pastor. The Sunday School enrollment was 140. Nathan Leverett was Superintendent. Baptist Training Union enrollment was 60 and the Director was George Richardson. The WMU enrollment was 22 with Mrs. Ray Huckaby as president.

Deacons in 1957 were E. B. Coggins, E. K. Davis, C. P. Finney, Azro Huckaby, Fred Davis, O. G. Moore, John Lee, George Richardson, Robert Sims, Nathan Leverett and Ralph Moore.

Francis Calloway who preached the sermon the day when Mt. Paran was organized, is buried at Antioch Baptist Church cemetery. His grave, which has been marked by the East Liberty Association, should be a shrine to interested visitors. In the Rock Springs cemetery rest many faithful leaders whose affections were set on this Church. Their lives were centered in it; they helped to carve out the glory and dignity with which it has stood as a burning and shining light in the community for over a hundred years.

Footnote: Mr. Davis lists the following: Official Church Minutes and Alabama Historical Quarterly, Vol. 6, No. 1, 1944.
