 Pepperell Manufacturing Company14

The Homer Monroe Carter Family45

This special edition of Tap Roots contains the story of Pepperell Village from its beginning to the present. Dianne K. Green spent about one year researching records of various types to be able to make this information available. More than 900 individuals are listed as living in Pepperell in 1930.

The mill closed in 2006 and stood vacant for a while. Plans were announced the buildings would be renovated into apartments. That dream ended when the mill caught fire and was completely destroyed in March 2013.

Lisa Harrelson, Community Development Administrator, City of Opelika, also worked for many months to obtain historical recognition for Pepperell Village to be listed on the Register of Historic Places.

The regular meeting of the Genealogical Society of East Alabama will be Saturday, July 16, 2016. The society meets at the Museum of East Alabama, 121 South 9th Street, in Opelika – at 11:00 a.m. The program will be presented by Jerry Armour on the History of Alabama Boys’ Industrial School as told in his compelling new book. Jerry Armour served seven years as a juvenile probation officer, two years as the psychologist in one of the state’s prisons and taught 30 years at Calhoun Community College and Athens State University. Today, he directs the Lawrence County Children’s Policy Council and teaches part-time.

The Lighter Side "Misunderstood"

One time this man attended a prayer breakfast. The topic of discussion was that men often did not tell their wives and children how much they loved them and that they really should do so more often. The guy thought about it off and on through the day. When he got home, he grabbed his wife; gave her a great big hug and a long passionate kiss. She immediately burst into tears and went flying down the hall to the bedroom crying as hard as she could. Bewildered, he followed her trying to figure out what in the world was wrong. When she got where she could talk she told him, "Johnny broke his arm today. The dog ran away and did not come back. The sewer backed up. And to top all of that, you have come home drunk."

Family Budget: The wife had been put on the budget plan. At the end of each month she and her husband would go over the accounts together. Every once in a while he would find an item "G. O. K., $3.00," and a little further on, "G. O. K., $6.00." Finally, he said, "My dear, what is G. O. K?" "God only knows," she replied.

A little nonsense:

"Barrel O' Fun." by J Hal Connor, Jr. Raymond C. Faltz Publisher, Somonauk, Ill. 1948, p.47

"Put that in your pipe"

"I've decided on a name for the baby," said the young mother. "I shall call her, Euphrosyne."

Her husband did not care for the selection, but being a tactful fellow, he was far too wise to declare objection.

"Splendid," he said cheerfully. "The first girl I ever loved was called Euphrosyne, and the name will revive pleasant memories."

There was a brief period of silence, then: "We will call her Elizabeth after my mother," said the young wife firmly.

“Perspective”

Moody, Dwight Leman. 1,100 Illustrations from the Writings of D. L. Moody.

Baker Books, 1996.

A steamboat was stranded in the Mississippi River, and the Captain could not get her free.

A hard looking fellow came on board and said, “Captain, I understand you want a pilot to take you out of this difficulty.”

The captain said, “Are you a pilot?”

“Well, they call me one.”

“Do you know where the snags and sandbars are?”

“No, Sir.”

“Well, how do you expect to take me out of here if you don’t know where the snags and sandbars are?”

“I know where they ain’t!” was the reply.

“That’s what counts”

Connor, J. Hal, Ed. “Barrel O’ Fun.”

D. C. Faltz, Pub. 1948. P. 39

A young boy, undergoing an examination for a position, came across the question, “What is the distance of the Earth from the Sun?”

He wrote his answer as follows: “I am unable to state accurately, but I don’t believe the Sun is near enough to interfere with a proper performance of my duties if I get this clerkship.

He got it.

“Slips Occasionally”

Connor, J. Hal, Ed. “Barrel O’ Fun.”

D. C. Faltz, Pub. 1948. P. 29

They were sitting under the trees, while the moon shone down on them. “Darling,” she cooed, “do you really love me?”

“O – course I do.”

“Do - - do you think of me day and night?”

He hesitated for a while.

“Well, darling, to be frank with you, I think of football sometimes.”

“Who is really the boss in your house?” Inquired a friend.

“Well, of course, Maggie assumes command of the children, dog, cat and canary.

But I can say pretty much what I please to the goldfish.”

The Genealogical Society of East Alabama wishes for you and your family every happiness for the New Year and always.

What God Hath Promised

God hath not promised
 Skies always blue,
 Flower strewn pathways
 All our lives thru';
 God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
 Joy without sorrow,
 Peace without pain.
 God hath not promised
 We shall not know
 Toil and temptation,
 Trouble and woe;
 He hath not told us
 We shall not bear
 Many a burden,
 Many a care.
 But God hath promised
 Strength for the day,
 Rest for the laborer,
 Light for the way,
 Grace for the trials,
 Help from above,
 Unfailing sympathy,
 Undying love.

A message for Easter from 100 years ago

The Alexander City Outlook (Alexander City, Alabama) • Wed, Mar 24, 1920, Page 5,
Newspapers.com - Printed on Mar 11, 2020

Spring has arrived, everything is taking on new life, and with all nature bursting into new life the Soul of man should begin to take new hold on God.

At this Easter season when hundreds and thousands of men are being resurrected to new life in Christ, as a solid Protestantism clasps hands to take America for Christ, we should all make our way to the Church of your choice and let God use us in bringing America's 58,000,000 who are yet out of the Church into the Church and Kingdom of God.

Our HOMES determine the America of tomorrow. The atmosphere of our homes must be Christian if our boys and girls have the principles of Christian character instilled into them.

“The Soul of The Home” will be the subject discussed at the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 11 A. M. We welcome you to this service.

Yours for the homes of Alexander City,

G. F. COOPER
